Are event shipping containers a good idea?

Event planners have recognized the potential of shipping containers as blank canvases that can be transformed into unique event spaces. Unlike traditional venues, event shipping containers provide a cost-effective solution.

What are event shipping containers?

One such trend that has gained significant traction in recent years is the utilization of event shipping containers. These versatile structures provide a unique and customizable space for hosting a wide range of events, from pop-up shops and exhibitions to festivals and corporate gatherings.

What is a high cube container?

Standard containers, also known as dry containers, are the most common type. These containers are durable, weather-resistant, and can be easily modified to suit specific event requirements. High cube containers, on the other hand, provide additional vertical space, allowing for creative design elements such as elevated stages or multi-level setups.

Are event shipping containers custom-built?

Event shipping containers are completely custom-built, and nearly all of the design features are up to you. If you'd like to add or modify something that you don't see here, chances are, we can probably do it. Give us a call at (678) 666-3688 to learn more.
